

Serenity on the Sound

A weekend of healing recovery, fellowship and fun.

The 27th annual Puget Sound Retreat will be held on the beautiful and tranquil Key Peninsula.

Serenity on the Sound is a retreat open to all SAA and COSA members, other S-recovery fellowships, and adult family and friends in recovery.

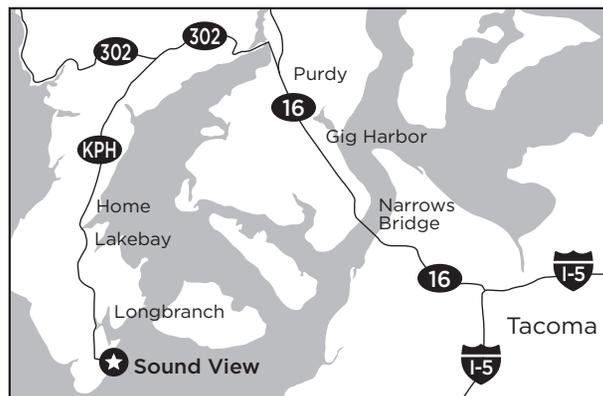

Sex Addicts Anonymous (SAA) is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other so they may overcome their sexual addiction and help others recover from sexual addiction and dependency.

COSA is a recovery program for men and women whose lives have been affected by someone else's compulsive sexual behavior. With the humble act of reaching out, we begin the process of recovery.

Serenity on the Sound

August 25-28, 2016
at Sound View Camp

Driving directions:

From Interstate 5 in Tacoma, take Exit 132 (Highway 16). Travel west (across The Narrows Bridge) for approximately 10 miles. Just past Gig Harbor, take the Purdy Key Center exit (Highway 302). Follow the exit road until you come to a traffic light. Turn left at the light and go over the bridge on to the Key Peninsula.

Stay on Key Peninsula Highway all the way to Sound View—do not follow Highway 302 when it bears right, or make any other turns. You'll go through Key Center, then 5 miles through the towns of Home and Lakebay. Lakebay to Sound View is about 6 miles. When you see a "Dead End" sign, don't worry—keep going straight. You're just about there.

The camp will be on the left side of the road. You can unload by the main lodge (half way down the hill) then park in the upper parking lots.

Feel free to call the camp if you have any problems finding your way at 253-884-9202. Sound View Camp address is 8515 Key Peninsula Highway, Longbranch, WA 98351.

Note: Add travel time if crossing the Tacoma Narrows Bridge from 3:30 to 6:30 on Friday evening.
